*We have ordered 200 jerseys in various sizes. We will reserve jerseys as we receive orders. If you place your order for a size and we are out of that size, we will notify you for refund or different size. Order your jersey early for better chance to get your correct size. It is first come first served. There will be no late order or reorder of jerseys.

**Jerseys are European cut. This is usually one full size smaller than US (American) sizes. Most people go up one size for a comfortable fit.
